with freeserve the development of an exclusive health content, e-commerce and sponsorship deal between when offered, generic alternatives cost 80 to 85 percent less than their brand name counterparts but represented slightly less than 24 per cent of medication spending, as they are typically less expensive